

Integration Model (how the tables are related)

This visualization helps to understand the sources of our data and their relationships. The table structure clarifies how the silver layer is constructed and how the primary keys are distributed.

